Ski and Golf At Mammoth Mountain Memorial Day Weekend

Take your game from the slopes to the fairways for an unforgettable Mammoth Memorial Day.

Mammoth Mountain, CA – Boasting the highest 18-hole golf course in California and a sunny spring ski season that lasts well into May, Mammoth Mountain has just announced that visitors will be able to ski and golf in the same day this Memorial Day weekend.

With a three to six foot base and legendary spring conditions, don't miss the last runs of the season at Mammoth, which will remain open for skiing through Memorial Day on Monday, May 26, 2008. Mammoth's Sierra Star Golf Course opens Saturday, May 24, 2008. This is just in time to sweeten the allure of spring in Mammoth by delivering skiing and golf, two of California's most loved pastimes, within minutes of each other.

Mammoth's Memorial Day ski and golf package starts at just $125 per person per night and includes lodging and one activity option per night stayed. Memorial Day ski and golf activities include 18 holes at Sierra Star Golf Course, an all-day lift ticket at Mammoth Mountain or a Panorama Scenic Gondola Ride.* Reserve your Memorial Day ski and golf package today at MammothMountain.com or by calling 800.MAMMOTH.

The U.S. Ski and Snowboard Teams and the Burton Global Team frequent Mammoth for spring training. These teams will be skiing and riding Mammoth's alpine race courses and the new spring Super Duper Pipe through the end of the season. Mammoth guarantees a pipe and park will be open to the public through Memorial Day, May 26, 2008.

*Memorial Day package valid May 23 - 26, 2008. Prices start as low as $125 per person, per night, based on double occupancy with two night minimum stay required. Other restrictions may apply.
