Tamarack Lodge was built on July 26th, 1924 by the Foy family of Los Angeles, later immortalized by Bob Hope in the movie, The Seven Little Foys. The family used the lodge to entertain socialites from the entertainment world.

In 1927, the lodge was purchased by the Lloyd B. Austin family of Pasadena, who were destined to own Tamarack for over twenty years. Under the Austin's, the Lodge enjoyed a rich period of growth – cabins were built, anglers and families visited from far and wide, and a colorful folklore was built around the winter skiers and basin caretakers. With no open roads above Mammoth, all transportation was via dog sled, snowshoe or ski; winters were long, and the caretakers led isolated and adventuresome lives. Pictures from this era of the thirties and forties can be seen throughout the lodge and on the walls of the restaurant.

In the 1950's and 60's Tamarack was owned by the Bob Stanford family. Bob is still active locally, and has served as a Mono County Supervisor. In the 60's, the Stanford's began keeping Tamarack open all year round, and skiing in the Lakes Basin became a fledgling commercial undertaking. By 1976 the lodge had changed hands again, as under the Asher family the Lakefront Restaurant was born and Tamarack began to enjoy being a center for the new-in-America sport of Nordic, or, as it is now known, cross-country skiing.

David and Carol Watson bought Tamarack in 1986 and enjoyed a very productive decade. Through their vision and perseverance, they made Tamarack Lodge and Resort into one of the West's premier outdoors vacation spots. They also are responsible for establishing the Lakefront Restaurant in the upper echelon of California's best and most intimate restaurants.

Today, Tamarack, including the Lakefront Restaurant and the Cross-Country Ski Center, is owned and operated by Mammoth Mountain. The lodge and adjacent cabins are enjoying a renaissance as a comfortable and timeless mountain resort.

The Lakefront Restaurant continues a tradition of fine dining, eloquent service, and masterful culinary. The Ski Center has grown dramatically, pushed by a surge in cross-country skiing as a healthy and fun-filled alternative to downhill skiing. Tamarack's historic rooms, and elegantly rustic cabins, overlooking beautiful Twin Lakes, attract increasing numbers of guests year round, while the Lodge's warm lobby and large stone fireplace continue to welcome guests, as they have for more than 100 years.

We welcome you.
